Quote selected by the Archdiocesan Commission for Justice, Peace and Development,

"From the home must come the man or woman able to promote the changes needed in politics, in society, in the ways of justice: ... it will be so easy once boys and girls are trained in the heart of each family to aspire not to have more but to be more, not to grab everything but to give abundantly to others. They must be educated for love. Loving is what the family is all about, and loving means giving oneself, surrendering oneself to the well-being of all and working for the common happiness."
Archbishop Oscar Romero, 1979
